Jackalyne Pfannenstiel

Dear Jackalyne Pfannenstiel:

Enough!!!!

Stop the government intrusion into our own homes by requiring homeowners to install a thermostat that can be adjusted by government bureaucrats.

STAY OUT OF MY HOUSE. You already sit around and decide what we can eat, drink, how we use cell phones, trans fats, fatty foods, seat belts, and the most ridiculous one of late - outlawing 'fois gras' - did the taxpayers pay for that ridiculous debate? - who CARES ABOUT DUCK LIVER????? which I can bet less than 1% of people eat -(I've never had it and don't intend to), and required us put our auto lights on during the day if it's raining(ridiculous) - and I AM TIRED OF IT. We would all be better off if you weren't in session at all. This stuff you sit around and pass is RIDICULOUS. GET OUT IN THE REAL WORLD AND GET A REAL JOB. But this one - THIS IS AN INEXCUSABLE INTRUSION INTO MY HOME. QUIT MONITORING EVERYONE'S PERSONAL CHOICES.

I and many others will fight this.

Californians already rank dead last among the 50 states in our per capita consumption of electricity. The average Californian uses about half the electricity as the average American, and less than consumers in Luxembourg, Guam, the Cayman Islands and Aruba.

Stop the expansion of the government nanny state. Oppose the government controlled thermostats in our own homes.

Sincerely, Janet Jones

Janet Jones
