RECD. AUG 01 2011

Dear Commissioners,

Regret.

We all have it, for one thing or another. Please take a moment and conjure up in your mind something you regret. Feel the sorrow, anxiety... regret.

Real, deep, wrenching regret. Please drop your intellectual defenses just long enough to actually feel this emotion in your heart. Regret.

Now imagine the regret you personally would feel if a nuclear disaster struck in California; the human suffering that would haunt your soul, and the unimaginable regret you would rightfully own, knowing that you -- specifically YOU -- could have made the decision to avoid it.

Regret.

Be the best ancestor you can be... eliminate nuclear power in California. It is in your power to do so.

That is the only decision you cannot regret.
