 ORMAT NEVADA, INC. BROUGHT BY

DOCKET No. 11-CAI-02

ERRATA to the PROPOSED DECISION

Please insert the following changes to the Proposed Decision:¹

1. Page 16, second paragraph:

CURE cites to Ormat’s Water Supply Agreement (“WSA”) with IID for deliveries of 6,800 acre feet per year for use “in and incidental to the operation of the North Brawley Geothermal Development Project,” proposed by ORNI 18, LLC. (Id., citing to Ex. 200, App. G, p. 1). CURE acknowledges that the WSA does not identify a specific point of delivery. (Id.) However, as Mr. Sullivan testified, North Brawley’s water comes from IID’s West Side Main canal through a three mile pipeline. (9/26/11 RT 226:8-16). Mr. Sullivan cited to where the WSA expressly precludes sharing water with any other project, including East Brawley. (Ex. 200, App. G, p. 3; 9/26/11 RT 233:6-23). The proposed East Brawley geothermal project does not have a ~~power purchase agreement~~ water contract or a supply of water yet. (9/26/11 RT 230:18-25231:1). The WSA is not proof of shared water facilities between the two projects.

2. Page 18, third paragraph:

The excerpt above indicates that East Brawley will not interconnect with the North Brawley 1 substation per se, but rather with IID’s interconnection point at the North Brawley 1 substation. CURE has offered no other evidence to suggest that the East Brawley transmission system will feed into the North Brawley system or vice versa. CURE did not offer live testimony or cross-examine Ormat’s expert on this point. (9/26/11 RT 269:19-281:8). The East Brawley geothermal project does not have an interconnection agreement or a power purchase agreement. (9/26/11 RT 230:18-25).

3. Page 19, first paragraph:

CURE did not raise any allegations in its Complaint regarding the control rooms of North Brawley and East Brawley. However, it argues in its Opening Brief that North Brawley and East Brawley will share a common control room (CURE Op. Brief, p. 15). ~~However~~ Nevertheless, the evidentiary record clearly establishes that North Brawley and East Brawley will each have its own control room. (Exs. 201, pp.1-2; 202, pp.1-2).
