My name is Donald Rowe. I live in El Cajon, zip code 92020, on Chambers Street, and have resided in San Diego County and the San Diego City region since 1961. I enjoy the unmatched beauty of Mission Trails Regional Park. MTRP is the closest open-space, nature environment enclave located in proximity to the cities of San Diego, Santee, and La Mesa. At the monument atop Cowles Mountain, no finer view of San Diego proper and east county can be found, not counting the health benefit of reaching the monument. Furthermore, there I have enjoyed many relaxing and educational hours with my grandchildren, now all four teenagers, exploring, hiking, mountain biking, and introducing them into the art of nature/landscape photography. Therefore, I oppose any form of industrial complex or facility now presently being considered for permits and construction. ESolorio should consider going Solar, after all, that is "Clean Energy." Moreover, Solar panels look up, they don't stand up. Smoke stacks versus Solar panels, which one would of these entities would the CEO, CFO, or COO put in his/her backyard next to there swimming pool and bar-bq?

Sincerely,

Don Rowe
