Kerry,

I entered requests for the people listed below to be added to the Renewable listserver here:

<http://www.energy.ca.gov/listservers/>

You should all be getting emails shortly asking you to confirm your subscription. Once you do, you will be added to the listserver. If you want to be added to any other Energy Commission listservers, just go to the website above and follow the instructions. Thank you!

A new docket as been established for the Proposed Regulations for Enforcement Procedures for the Renewables Portfolio Standard for Local Publicly Owned Electric Utilities. The new docket number is: 13-RPS-01.

All parties subscribing to the Renewable Listserver will receive an electronic copy of the Notice of Proposed Action (NOPA) for the Proposed Regulations when the NOPA is published by the Office of Administrative Law. To receive future documents and notifications regarding this proceeding sign up for the Renewable Listserver. The Energy Commission will no longer use the 33by2020 and Power Source Disclosure listservers to distribute information on the RPS Proposed Regulations after March 1, 2013.

Any party wishing to receive a mailed hard copy of the NOPA should respond to RPS33@energy.ca.gov by Wednesday, February 27, 2013 with the following information:
