

California Energy Commission

2016 Update to ATTCP Regulations

California Energy Commission

DOCKETED

15-BSTD-01

TN 75259

MAR 05 2015

2016 Building Energy Efficiency Standards Update Lead Commissioner Hearing for 45-Day Language

March 3, 2015

Joe Loyer

Building Standards Implementation Office

Efficiency Division

Joe.Loyer@energy.ca.gov / 916-654-4811

California Energy Commission

Lighting Controls & Mechanical

Part 1, Section 10-103-A and Section 10-103-B

Proposed changes that clarify without materially altering the requirements.

(b)(2) Industrial Coverage

(c)(1) Document Organizational Structure

(c)(2) Certification of Employers

(c)(3) Training & Certification Procedures

(c)(3)(A) Training Scope

(c)(3)(B)(iii) Prequalifications

(c)(3)(B)(iv) Instructor/Trainee Ratio

(c)(3)(B)(v) Tests

(c)(3)(B)(vi) Recertification

(c)(3)(D) Complaint Procedures

(d)(1) and (2) Reporting Requirements

California Energy Commission

Lighting Controls & Mechanical

Part 1, Section 10-103-A and Section 10-103-B

changes that
the requirements.

Transparency and Accountability specify the minimum amount of quality eval.

on-site audits of no less than 1

Lighting Controls & Mechanical

Part 1, Section 10-103-A and Section 10-103-B

changes that
the requirements.

Process.

certification providers to amend an approved by, the Energy Commission.

for both substantial and non-notification.

California Energy Commission

Lighting Controls & Mechanical

Part 1, Section 10-103-A and Section 10-103-B

— — — — — on of Subsection.

of ATTCPs

pecified in 10-103-A(e)(4) in the ber 31, 2014) and per the ordered cal (June 30, 2015).

California Energy Commission

Lighting Controls & Mechanical

Part 1, Section 10-103-A and Section 10-103-B

Without regulatory effect considered

10-103.1 and 10-103.2

Sections 10-103(a) and (b).

Annual Reports

Consistency between Annual Reports and regulatory language to clarify the Compliance Manual are being considered.