Subject: HERS Rater needs to stay 3rd Party Inspections

Hi Rachel,

It was brought to my attention that the CEC is reconsidering their interpretation of the 3rd party inspections, and I strongly believe that it needs to stay in the hands of independent 3rd party Raters so that there is not a conflict of interests.

I believe pulling permits for HVAC contractors for their personal gain is asking for abuse of the system that is in place. Please keep me apprised of the situation and know that you have my support.

Sincerely,

Diana Kirksey
