Notice of Joint Agency Workshop on 2030 Energy Efficiency Targets

The California Energy Commission and the California Public Utilities Commission (CPUC) will jointly conduct a workshop to discuss key questions in the implementation of the energy efficiency portions of Senate Bill 350, the Clean Energy and Pollution Reduction Act of 2015 (de León, Chapter 547, Statutes of 2015) (SB 350). The workshop is part of the 2017 Integrated Energy Policy Report (IEPR) proceeding.

Energy Commission Chair Robert B. Weisenmiller is the Lead Commissioner for the 2017 IEPR and will be joined by Commissioner J. Andrew McAllister of the Energy Commission and President Michael Picker and Commissioner Carla Peterman of the CPUC. Representatives of the California Independent System Operator and the California Air Resources Board may also attend. Other Commissioners from the Energy Commission and the CPUC may also attend and participate in the workshop. A quorum of Commissioners from the Energy Commission and the CPUC may attend, but no votes will be taken. The workshop will be held:

Background

On October 7, 2015, Governor Edmund G. Brown Jr. signed SB 350 into law. The bill establishes a new statewide goal to reduce greenhouse gas emissions 40 percent below 1990 levels by 2030. Specifically, SB 350 requires that the Energy Commission adopt targets by November 2017 that achieve a statewide cumulative doubling of energy efficiency savings in gas and electric final end-uses by 2030. The energy efficiency targets required by SB 350 will be adopted as part of the 2017 IEPR. The Energy Commission assesses major energy trends and issues facing the state's electricity, natural gas, and transportation fuel sectors and provides policy recommendations to conserve resources; protect the environment; ensure reliable, secure, and diverse energy supplies; enhance the state's economy; and protect public health and safety (Public Resources Code § 25301[a]). The Energy Commission prepares updates to these assessments and associated policy recommendations in alternate years, (Public Resources Code § 25302[d]).

SB 350 stipulates that the Energy Commission must establish the energy efficiency savings doubling targets in a public process that involves the CPUC and the utilities. On July 11, 2016, the Energy Commission held an initial workshop, involving the CPUC, utilities, and other stakeholders on the data and analytical needs related to doubling energy efficiency savings within the context of the IEPR demand forecast.

Agenda

A detailed schedule and documents for the workshop will be posted prior to the workshop at http://www.energy.ca.gov/2017\_energypolicy. This workshop will feature a presentation and discussion, and will solicit stakeholder feedback on a proposed framework for implementation of the energy efficiency portions of SB 350. This proposed framework will be based on a staff report to be published prior to the workshop. The discussion will focus on the proposed computational method for establishing the 2030 energy efficiency savings targets called for by SB 350, including, but not limited to, the following topics:

- How the Energy Commission should interpret the statute's directive to achieve a "cumulative doubling" of energy efficiency savings in final end uses by 2030.
- What type of metrics will be used to measure the statewide targets, whether and in what fashion the gas and electric targets will be aggregated, and how the statewide targets will be portrayed as greenhouse gas reduction targets.
- How an average annual growth rate will be used to extend savings targets from 2026 through 2030.
- The issues associated with using the California Energy Demand Updated Forecast, 2015-2025 as the basis for establishing the doubling targets.
- How the energy efficiency savings targets would compare to current additional achievable energy efficiency projections.
- An initial framing of how the Energy Commission might parse the statewide targets into achievable subtargets for various responsible entities and programs.
