SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND RELEASE

This Settlement Agreement and Release (Agreement) is entered into between the California Energy Commission (CEC), with its principal office at 715 P Street, Sacramento, California 95814, and GoPlus Corporation (GoPlus), with a place of business at 11250 Poplar Avenue, Fontana, California 92337, collectively referred to as the Parties.

I. RECITALS

(1) CEC's Appliance Efficiency Regulations at California Code of Regulations, Title 20, Article 4, sections 1601-1609 (Appliance Efficiency Regulations),<sup>1</sup> set forth the requirements to sell or offer for sale regulated appliances in California. The pertinent requirements include:

- Testing: The appliance is tested as required in section 1603, using the applicable test method set forth in section 1604.
- Efficiency: The appliance meets the required efficiency standards set forth in sections 1605.2 or 1605.3.
- Marking: The appliance is correctly marked and labeled as required under section 1607.
- Certification: The appliance is certified to CEC and appears in CEC's most recent Modernized Appliance Efficiency Database System (MAEDbS) as required under section 1606.

(2) CEC's enforcement authority includes the removal of non-complying appliances from MAEDbS, as set forth in section 1608, and the issuance of administrative civil penalties under section 1609.

(3) GoPlus manufactures several models of Costway brand portable air conditioners and Gymax brand portable electric spas that are sold or offered for sale in California, either directly or through retailers or distributors.

(4) Costway brand portable air conditioners and Gymax brand portable electric spas are subject to the testing, efficiency, marking, and certification requirements for this appliance class as described in paragraph I(1) above.

(5) From August 2020 to August 2024, GoPlus sold or offered for sale in California through retailers or distributors, Costway brand portable air conditioners and Gymax brand portable electric spas that were not listed in MAEDbS as required in section 1606, did not meet the efficiency standards set forth in section 1605.3 when tested using the appropriate test method as described in section 1604(h), and were not marked as required in section 1607.

(6) Based on the above Recitals, CEC, through administrative adjudication, could impose penalties for each violation alleged, obtain injunctive relief to prohibit GoPlus from continuing to sell or offer for sale, non-compliant portable air conditioners and portable electric spas in California, and take any other enforcement action as allowed by law.

(7) California Public Resources Code section 25402.11(a)(2) identifies the following factors CEC shall consider when determining the amount of an administrative civil penalty:

- The nature and seriousness of the violation.
- The number of violations.
- The persistence of the violation arising from the course of conduct that is subject of the enforcement proceeding.
- The length of time over which the violation occurred.
- The willfulness of the violation.
- The violator's assets, liabilities, and net worth.
- The harm to consumers and to the state that resulted from the amount of energy wasted due to the violation.

(8) Penalties must be set at levels sufficient to deter violations. In developing this Agreement CEC considered the facts of the case and applied the above factors to determine an appropriate settlement. Further, in this case GoPlus cooperated with CEC in the investigation by promptly providing to CEC sales data for all non-compliant units, and by discontinuing sales of non-compliant units. The efforts by GoPlus saved CEC time and resources in investigating the violations and minimized the impacts on the competitive business, energy consumption, and environment in California, from the non-compliant units.

(9) GoPlus is willing to enter into this Agreement solely for the purpose of settlement and resolution of this matter with CEC. CEC accepts this Agreement in termination of this matter. Accordingly, the Parties agree to resolve this matter completely by means of this Agreement, without the need for administrative adjudication.
